

Refund Policy

Please read carefully our refund policy for both the services we offer, as well as for the physical products we offer in our health & wellness category, as the policy differs for each.

When purchasing a membership and/or a subscription with ATLAS, whether a product or a service, you are required to certify that you have read, understand, and agree to our refund policy. Additionally, you are required to certify that you have read, understand, and agree to our privacy policy, terms & conditions, policies & procedures, and income disclaimer.

For services (including subscriptions to courses for forex education and the special asset education):

ATLAS offers a THREE-day, satisfaction guarantee, on all initial fees paid to the company. All subsequent fees are nonrefundable. Please note that at time of purchase, you have access immediately to our library of trainings, as well as to live sessions, and signal access. Our services revolve around the release of intellectual property and often involve independent contractor commissions to professional traders, so in effort to protect ourselves, we strictly abide by our refund policy and do not make exceptions.

Upon purchase, you agree to pay for the chosen services on a monthly subscription-based billing cycle and for ATLAS to charge your account for any purchased services as well as any additional fees that may be accrued by your purchase including, but not limited to, taxes, fees, etc. Prices for our services may change at any time, and the services do not provide price protection or refunds in the event that price is reduced, increased, or changed in any way. You are responsible for the timely payment of all costs and for providing Atlas with a valid payment method for all costs. Any and all transactions conducted are final.

You may view your next billing date for any and all of your ATLAS subscriptions at any time from your personal ATLAS backoffice. You are responsible for cancelling your membership in a timely manner prior to your next billing date. You may cancel your membership and any associated subscriptions by contacting ATLAS Member Support at cancellations@atlasandbeyond.com.

Note that although you may choose to cancel your subscriptions with ATLAS at any time without penalty, previously completed payments are non-refundable unless applicable to our initial three-day satisfaction guarantee. Any cancellation of future rebills must be made 7 days prior to next re-bill/autoship date to prevent being charged.
